
My Poems

Posted by joeynicdao - 2007/01/27 06:10

Some of my poems can be found on poetry.com if you do a search on me. If you read those and would like to read others, let me know. If you write your own poems I'd love to read them but if you just have an appreciation for reading poems, I'd still like to hear from you. Hopefully someday I'll get to publish all my poems in a book.
